

2014 BOSTON MARATHON®

John Hancock®

For more information, please visit www.baa.org or www.cityofboston.gov/marathon

TUESDAY, APRIL 15

A Tribute: April 15 | Hynes Convention Center
Hosted jointly by Governor Deval L. Patrick and Boston Mayor Martin J. Walsh in coordination with the One Fund Boston at the Hynes Convention Center. The tribute will honor those who were most affected by the tragic events of last April.

The ceremony will conclude at the Boston Marathon finish line with a flag raising ceremony at 2:49 p.m.

Road closures will be in effect in the Back Bay area, particularly in sections along Boylston Street.

For more information on road closures on April 15 and throughout Boston Marathon week, please visit www.cityofboston.gov/marathon. Information will be posted as it becomes available.

For more information on the Boston Athletic Association, organizer of the Boston Marathon, please visit www.baa.org.

SATURDAY, APRIL 19

B.A.A. 5K | 8:00 a.m. | Boston Common
Starting and finishing at Boston Common, 10,000 runners will take part in the 2014 B.A.A. 5K, a scenic tour through Back Bay which crosses the Boston Marathon finish line.

Tribute Run | 10:30 a.m. | Copley Square
Those who were most affected by the tragic events of last April, including survivors, family members, and first responders, will take part in a 1.15-mile walk/run.

B.A.A. Invitational Mile | 11:45 a.m. | Copley Square
Some of the world's fastest runners will compete in a one-mile road race. Also, scholastic athletes from the eight cities and towns of the Boston Marathon course will take part in one-mile and 1,000 meter races.

B.A.A. Relay Challenge | 1:30 p.m. | Copley Square
An event for youths who are part of Club 118, a B.A.A. Youth Running Program.

Road closures will be in effect, particularly in areas that are adjacent to, or abut, the B.A.A. 5K course. Road closures will also be in effect near Copley Square.

Please visit www.cityofboston.gov/marathon for more information on road closures as it becomes available.

MONDAY, APRIL 21

118th Boston Marathon® | Hopkinton-to-Boston
36,000 entrants will participate in the 118th Boston Marathon, starting the 26.2-mile run from rural Hopkinton and finishing on Boylston Street at Copley Square near the John Hancock Tower.

Race day road closures will be in effect on roads in the vicinity of Kenmore Square, Copley Square, Boston Common, and other areas in the Back Bay.

Crowd barriers will be erected along Boylston Street and all areas of the course within the City of Boston. Spectators should expect delays due to security screening.

Taking public transportation is strongly encouraged. The following nearby MBTA stations will be open:

- ▶ Hynes Convention Center Station (MBTA Green Line)
- ▶ Prudential Station (MBTA Green Line)
- ▶ Back Bay Station (MBTA Orange Line / Commuter Rail)

Copley Station (MBTA Green Line) will be closed on April 21. Arlington Street Station (MBTA Green Line) will be closed for portions of the day on April 21.